

100-800

Nasca

Far to south, along even drier part of the Western Coast of So. America
Nasca chiefdoms turned the desert into cropland by building UNDERGROUND Aqueducts to limit evaporation of precious water supplies, then channeling the water into irrigation canals.

This culture also faded by 900

100 AD (?)

Accession of Kushan king
Kanishka, Capital at PURUSHAPURA (Peshawar)

100AD

Peru
Moche tomb of 'Old Lord
of Sipán'

AD100

The Roman Army contains 300,000 soldiers and reaches its peak. Network of forts and legionary fortresses concentrated along the frontiers.

AD/100

Gandharan Buddhist art from PESHAWAR
Valley shows strong Hellenistic influence

First metallurgy in the islands of South
East Asia

C 100 A.D.

There was no New Testament. Many Books & Gospels (other than New Testament) were widely read. Some Christians

- held:
- (1) There were 2 or 12 or 30 gods
 - (2) A malicious god created the world
 - (3) Christ's death & resurrection had nothing to do with salvation
 - (4) Christ never died at all

Writings included the Captive Gospel of Thomas, Infancy Gospels

Acts of Paul & Thecla
Finger in the name of Paul
Epistle of Barnabas

AD 100 to 700

Built in seven phases HUAQ
CAO (pyramid) (in Peru)
VIEJO. Included a plaza larger than a football field. Six tiered pyramid

AD 100-800

MOCHES ruled Peru's
north coast before the INCA.

Dozens of pyramids dot
the Moche area
made exquisite pottery
& jewelry
Human sacrifice
Vanished 500 yrs before Inca

C100 AD

From Paganism, Christianity borrowed the custom of image worship which to the earliest fathers was abhorrent.

From Judaism it borrowed a narrow intolerance